

JOSIE HYDE

WIND IN A MIRROR AYAHUASCA VISIONS

WIND IN A MIRROR...AYAHUASCA VISIONS is a multimedia solo show, a play of ironies about guilt and transcendence. The story is a search for enlightenment climaxing in the Amazon in a ceremony with ayahuasca, the visionary vine of death. Accompanied by an original art video and soundtrack with the music of Tom Lackner and Amazon shamans Don Jose Campos and Don Agustin Rivas Vasquez.

JOSIE HYDE began a career in performance poetry in 1993. She has performed her poetry in North America, Central America and Europe and won poetry slams in San Francisco, Santa Barbara, Chicago, New York, Costa Rica and Berlin. Twice she received The Honor Award for Lyrics in The Great American Song Contest.

Josie studied Communications at U.C. Berkeley, Painting and Design at U.C.L.A., Acting with Peter Frisch and Rick Mokler, Singing with Chris Power, Dance with Ken Gilbert and Poetry with Kenneth Rexroth. Spalding Gray was her good friend and inspirer.

is Josie's first solo show.

“Matter is in the eye of the beholder.”
